

Year 1 Light and Incarnation

How does art represent Jesus being the light of the world?

Key vocabulary

Represent

Art

Light

World

Manger

Christmas

Angel

Jesus

In this unit I will learn:

- To sequence the key events of the Christmas story.
- To reflect on how I feel about Christmas.
- To interpret religious art and offer my opinion on it.
- To ask questions about the Christmas story.
- To create images about the Christmas story.
- To understand the symbolism of light
- How our own behavior can be bring 'light.'
- To discuss how Jesus is represented in art and create my own art to represent Jesus.

What should I know already?

- The Christmas story.
- Who Jesus is.
- Why Christians celebrate Christmas.
- The importance of Jesus to the Christmas story.

Key questions

- What happens during the Christmas story?
- Who is Jesus?
- Why do you think they call Jesus, 'the Light of the world?'
- How does art show Jesus being the Light of the world?

Skills I will develop:

- Reflect on things I find interesting and puzzling in different religious materials studied.
- Identify what I find important or concerning.
- I can recount some stories and biblical teachings.
- I can recognise some religious symbols and word.
- I can identify and recognise elements of my own experience in religious materials studied.
- I can recall features of religious, spiritual and moral stories.
- I can recognise features of religious life and practices.

